Section A — Vocabulary in Context

(a) 'completely puzzled' [2 marks]

Award 1 mark for each bullet up to a maximum of 2 marks:

- ('completely') totally / entirely / utterly / absolutely / thoroughly
- ('puzzled') confused / baffled / bewildered / unable to understand / lost

Guidance: LOOK FOR total confusion. Do NOT credit "interested".

(b) 'deeply mourned' [2 marks]

Award 1 mark for each bullet up to a maximum of 2 marks:

- ('deeply') greatly / intensely / very much / with great feeling / profoundly
- ('mourned') grieved for / felt sadness about / missed / sorrowed for / wept for

Guidance: LOOK FOR depth of grief. Do NOT credit "remembered" alone.

Section B — Word Choice

(c) 'ferocious' rather than 'angry' [1 mark]

- ferocious suggests extreme, terrifying violence / savage and deadly // angry just means upset; ferocious implies a wild, dangerous creature ready to kill

Guidance: LOOK FOR savage violence or terror.

(d) 'diminutive' rather than 'small' [1 mark]

- diminutive emphasises extreme smallness / makes the child seem fragile and vulnerable // small is neutral; diminutive highlights the contrast with the large stage

Guidance: LOOK FOR extreme smallness or vulnerability.

Section C — Writer's Effect

(e) 'shattered' [2 marks]

Award 1 mark for each idea up to a maximum of 2 marks:

- the windows are completely broken / smashed / in pieces / destroyed
- violence or force has been used / something destructive happened
- creates a sense of damage / abandonment // the reader feels uneasy / sad

Guidance: Focus on destruction. NOT: open alone.

(f) 'glorious' [2 marks]

Award 1 mark for each idea up to a maximum of 2 marks:

- the sunset is beautiful / magnificent / spectacular / breathtaking / stunning
- it is impressive / awe-inspiring / like a painting / vivid in colour
- creates wonder / appreciation // the reader feels amazed / peaceful / content

Guidance: LOOK FOR beauty and magnificence.
