Section A — Vocabulary in Context

(a) 'deeply annoyed' [2 marks]

Award 1 mark for each bullet up to a maximum of 2 marks:

- ('deeply') very / greatly / intensely / extremely / strongly
- ('annoyed') irritated / frustrated / angry / bothered / displeased

Guidance: Do NOT credit "upset" alone. LOOK FOR irritation or frustration.

(b) 'hastily abandon' [2 marks]

Award 1 mark for each bullet up to a maximum of 2 marks:

- ('hastily') quickly / in a hurry / without delay / urgently / rapidly
- ('abandon') leave behind / desert / give up / forsake / walk away from

Guidance: LOOK FOR urgency in leaving. Do NOT credit "move" alone.

Section B — Word Choice

(c) 'vicious' rather than 'dangerous' [1 mark]

- vicious suggests deliberate cruelty / aggression / intent to harm // dangerous is general; vicious implies active hostility and violence

Guidance: LOOK FOR cruelty or intent to harm.

(d) 'uncanny' rather than 'strange' [1 mark]

- uncanny suggests something eerily unusual / supernatural / unsettling // strange is milder; uncanny implies something almost unnatural

Guidance: LOOK FOR eeriness or the supernatural.

Section C — Writer's Effect

(e) 'grandeur' [2 marks]

Award 1 mark for each idea up to a maximum of 2 marks:

- the palace is magnificent / impressive / spectacular / majestic / beautiful
- it is grand / large / powerful / royal / overwhelming in size and beauty
- creates awe / wonder // the reader feels amazed / astonished / mesmerised

Guidance: Focus on magnificence and scale. NOT: big alone.

(f) 'overwhelming' [2 marks]

Award 1 mark for each idea up to a maximum of 2 marks:

- the grief is extreme / powerful / uncontrollable / crushing / all-consuming
- people cannot cope / are overcome / are overpowered by emotion
- the reader feels sad / sympathetic / melancholic // creates a sense of helplessness

Guidance: LOOK FOR extreme emotion. NOT: sad alone.
