English Language 1123
By Miss Jaweria

Section A — Vocabulary in Context

(a) 'waited anxiously' [2 marks]

Award 1 mark for each bullet up to a maximum of 2 marks:

- ('waited') stayed / remained / did not leave / kept watch
- ('anxiously') nervously / with worry / fearfully / with unease / in a state of panic

Guidance: LOOK FOR nervousness or fear. Do NOT credit "sadly".

(b) 'acute discomfort' [2 marks]

Award 1 mark for each bullet up to a maximum of 2 marks:

- ('acute') severe / intense / extreme / sharp / very serious
- ('discomfort') pain / unease / suffering / distress / agony

Guidance: Do NOT credit "a bit sore". LOOK FOR intensity of pain.

Section B — Word Choice

(c) 'bellowed' rather than 'shouted' [1 mark]

- bellowed suggests a deep, powerful, intimidating voice / like an animal roaring // shouted is general; bellowed conveys authority and aggression

Guidance: LOOK FOR depth and power of voice.

(d) 'lumbering' rather than 'walking' [1 mark]

- lumbering suggests heavy, slow, awkward movement / clumsiness due to size // walking is neutral; lumbering emphasises weight and lack of grace

Guidance: LOOK FOR heaviness or clumsiness.

Section C — Writer's Effect

(e) 'dense' [2 marks]

Award 1 mark for each idea up to a maximum of 2 marks:

- the undergrowth is thick / tightly packed / impossible to see through
- it is difficult to move through / like a wall / blocking their path
- creates a feeling of being trapped // the reader feels anxious / tense / nervous

Guidance: Focus on thickness and difficulty. NOT: green / natural alone.

(f) 'frenzy' [2 marks]

Award 1 mark for each idea up to a maximum of 2 marks:

- the reaction is wild / uncontrolled / extreme / chaotic
- people have lost control / are consumed by emotion / overwhelmed
- creates excitement / energy // the reader feels thrilled / excited

Guidance: LOOK FOR loss of control or wildness.
